

Ops Specialist Germany

DriveMe was launched in France in 2012, and now has more than 1.5 million users, 10,000 Pro drivers, moves over 5,000 vehicles per month, is present in over 7 European countries and is doubling in size every year.

DriveMe is the online platform which is revolutionizing vehicle logistics (A to B movements, end customer deliveries, concierge services...). We operate 1 movement every 3 minutes across Europe. DriveMe offers the market a unique combination of two 100% digital solutions:

- 1) PRO movements – carried out using our pool of paid professional drivers
- 2) Private individual movements – carried out by members of the public as 1€ one way rentals. The first provides a highly responsive and premium service while the second allows unbeatable prices.

You have the opportunity to join an exciting, young and dynamic start-up which is in the midst of international development. Reporting to the Country Manager for Germany, the position offers an opportunity for fast career progression.
